

The Job Market

All About Internships

Info based on a 2017 survey of ~3,500 employers

- ➡ Internships are one of the top experiences employers are looking for, even above non-professional work experience
- ➡ 33% of a company's full-time employees come from former interns or co-ops
- ➡ What do they mean by work experience? Internships, even those outside of your industry, count towards experience working in a professional space
- ➡ A great way to get the critical work attitudes and behaviors employers are looking for...these are often valued above skills and competencies!
- ➡ What gets you looked at for an internship?
 1. Enthusiasm
 2. Fit with the organization
 3. Hard working
 4. High quality work
 5. Professionalism
 6. Flexibility
 7. Maturity
 8. Independence
 9. High quantity of work
 10. Relevant work experience